

Section C -- Unemployment and Sickness Benefits

This section presents data on unemployment and sickness benefits paid to qualified railroad employees under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act (RUIA). Railroad unemployment and sickness benefits, by law, are based on a July-June benefit year. Therefore, railroad unemployment and sickness insurance benefit operations are presented on a benefit year basis, rather than on a fiscal year basis.

Normal benefits of each type may be paid for as many as 130 days in a period of 26 or more weeks but may not exceed the total creditable base year compensation of the beneficiary. After exhaustion of normal benefits, an employee with 10 or more years of railroad service may receive additional benefits in an extended benefit period provided they have not voluntarily retired, have not left work without good cause (for unemployment benefits only), and are less than 65 years old (for sickness benefits only). Extended benefits are paid in a 13-week period.

The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act of 2020 (CARES Act), enacted March 27, 2020, authorized payment of special extended unemployment benefits, enhanced unemployment benefits to those who received regular unemployment benefits in benefit year 2019-2020, and waiting period waiver unemployment and sickness benefits. Key provisions included the following:

- Railroad employees who were not previously eligible for extended unemployment benefits because they did not have 10 years of railroad service were eligible for up to 65 days within an extended period consisting of 7 consecutive 2-week registration periods.
- Railroad employees who were previously eligible for extended unemployment benefits of up to 65 days were eligible for extended benefits of up to 130 days within an extended period consisting of 13 consecutive 2-week registration periods.
- The special extended unemployment benefit periods had to begin no later than December 31, 2020.
- Enhanced unemployment benefits of $1,200 were payable for any unemployment registration period beginning on or after April 1, 2020, but no later than July 31, 2020.

The Continued Assistance to Rail Workers Act of 2020 (CARWA) was enacted December 27, 2020. Under CARWA, unemployment and sickness benefits are exempt from sequestration from January 3, 2021 until 30 days after the Presidential declaration of an end to the national emergency due to COVID-19. In addition:

- CARWA modified the CARES Act special extended unemployment benefits as follows:
 - The beginning date was extended from December 31, 2020 to March 14, 2021.
 - An additional 55 days within 6 additional consecutive 2-week registration periods for anyone who received regular unemployment benefits in the benefit years beginning July 1, 2019 or July 1, 2020.
 - No benefits were payable for registration periods beginning after April 5, 2021.
- Enhanced unemployment benefits of $600 per registration period were enacted for registration periods beginning on or after December 27, 2020 through registration periods beginning on or before March 14, 2021.
- The latest beginning date for the unemployment and sickness waiting period waiver benefits was extended from December 31, 2020 to March 14, 2021.

The American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA), enacted March 14, 2021, continued the CARWA benefits as follows:

- Provided an extension to the special extended unemployment benefits for registration periods through September 6, 2021 for anyone who received regular unemployment benefits in the benefit years beginning July 1, 2019, July 1, 2020, or July 1, 2021. The total number of days payable was not to exceed 265 days in 27 registration periods for claimants with less than 10 years of service; claimants with 10 or more years of service were eligible for up to 330 days in 33 registration periods.
- The ending date for the enhanced unemployment benefits was extended from March 14, 2021 to September 6, 2021 at the rate of $600 per registration period.
- Extended the unemployment and sickness waiting period waiver benefits through registration periods beginning September 6, 2021.

An employee was qualified for benefit year 2020-2021 if in the preceding calendar (base) year their compensation for railroad work, excluding earnings over $1,655 a month, was $4,137.50 or more. Additionally, if the employee was a new entrant to the industry in the base year, they must have had at least five months of service in that year. For a long-service employee (one with 10 or more years of railroad service) a benefit year could be started early if they were not currently qualified but would be qualified for the next benefit year. Also, an extended benefit period could continue beyond the usual June 30 ending date of a benefit year and thus extend the duration of the employee's benefit year. Therefore, the tables in this section on payments for unemployment and sickness that occurred during the July 2020 – June 2021 period include benefits that technically were payable in extensions of the 2019-2020 benefit year or accelerations of the 2021-2022 benefit year as well as those payable for the general benefit year (2020-2021).

Table C1 shows the principal figures for operations in benefit year 2020-2021 and other recent years. Figures in this table refer to payments made and other administrative actions taken under the unemployment and sickness programs during the designated benefit year. Table C2 provides various unemployment and sickness benefit and beneficiary data for benefit years 1991-1992 through 2020-2021. Tables C3 through C7 contain benefit data for unemployment and sickness which occurred in claim periods paid during the particular benefit years stated in the table headings or to which reference is made in the footnotes. Table C8 is a graph of unemployment and sickness beneficiaries by month for benefit year 2020-2021. Table C9 shows the distribution of experience-based contribution rates, by number of employers, for 2021.

Payments for maternity under a separate program were discontinued by amendments adopted in 1968. However, provision was made for payment of sickness benefits to female employees prevented from working because of pregnancy or childbirth. The sickness benefit data in this section include such payments.

The unemployment and sickness beneficiary tables for benefit year 2020-2021 include all payments made by June 30, 2021. Benefits are paid for compensable days of unemployment or sickness at a daily rate equal to 60 percent of the employee's last daily rate of pay in the base year, subject to an $82.00 maximum and a $12.70 minimum in benefit year 2020-2021.

In accordance with the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, as amended, unemployment and sickness benefit amounts reflect a reduction of 9.2% under sequestration for days of unemployment and sickness after February 28, 2013, a reduction of 7.2% for days after September 30, 2013, 7.3% for days after September 30, 2014, 6.8% for days after September 30, 2015, 6.9% for days after September 30, 2016, 6.6% for days after September 30, 2017, 6.2% for days after September 30, 2018, 5.9% for September 30, 2019, and 5.7% for September 30, 2020 and before January 3, 2021 due to CARWA.

The most important qualifications of the data for each table are shown in footnotes to the table.
